

Ms. Taylor Painter-Wolfe

Counselor

Taylor Painter-Wolfe is a fiber artist and art teacher from Tulsa, Oklahoma. She has a Bachelor of Fine Arts from the Kansas City Art Institute, where she majored in fiber art, and a Masters in Early Childhood Special Education from the University of Washington. She has taught special education, preschool, and art in Tulsa Public Schools since 2011 and she currently teaches art at Council Oak Elementary. In addition to teaching in public schools, Taylor has also taught art classes to kids and adults at Kravis Summer Arts Camp, AHHA, TGAS, and Waterworks, as well as in her own after school art club and summer fiber arts camp. When Taylor is not teaching, she is busy making her own fiber art in her tiny house studio. She makes felt, abstract landscapes which she shows in group and solo exhibitions locally and regionally. Taylor and her partner, Matt love camping and especially love going to National Parks. They have a goal to visit all 60 National Parks at some point in their lives. They are expecting their first child in July and are excited to have a new travelling companion soon!
